

Compliance: Certain Federal Contractors and Subcontractors Must Enroll in and Use E-Verify

Federal contractors and subcontractors with contracts containing the E-Verify Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) clause must enroll in and use E-Verify. New federal contractors and subcontractors with the E-Verify FAR requirement must provide their Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number during the E-Verify enrollment process. Existing E-Verify employers designated as federal contractors with the E-Verify FAR requirement will be prompted to enter their DUNS number into E-Verify when they update their company profile. For more information about verifying new and current employees, timelines, and other guidance, read the latest Supplemental Guide for Federal Contractors at <https://www.uscis.gov/e-verify/publications/manuals-and-guides/supplemental-guide-federal-contractors>.
